90% of consignments find new homes at Worldwide’s 12th annual Auburn Auction, with a spectacular 1948 Tucker Model 48 Sedan selling for $990,000 to benefit the Mayo Clinic for cancer research

Auburn, Indiana. August 26th, 2019. Worldwide Auctioneers staged its first event in its impressive new Indiana headquarters last weekend during the annual Auburn Labor Day Weekend extravaganza, with 90% of consignments finding new homes at The Auburn Auction. The sale delivered over $5 million, with a spectacular 1948 Tucker Model 48 Sedan selling for $990,000 to benefit the Mayo Clinic for cancer research. A storied 1955 Quin Epperly “Fuel Injection Special” Indianapolis 500 Streamliner brought $385,000, making this and the Tucker the highest selling cars of both the Auburn Auction and the overall weekend.
